Keiser University Student Becomes Officer for Toastmasters Club
Justin Pugh elected President of "Something to Talk About"

Lakeland, FL—June 28, 2013— The Lakeland campus of Keiser University is proud to announce that Justin Pugh has been elected President of the "Something to Talk About Toastmasters Club. Recently, he earned his AS in Design and Multimedia and is currently working on his Bachelor of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies. Instructor Jonathan Nielsen has been elected to serve as Sergeant at Arms.

The "Something to Talk About" Toastmasters Club meets on the campus twice a month. Toastmasters International is a world leader in communication and leadership development where members improve their speaking and leadership skills in a learn-by-doing, no-pressure atmosphere. Currently there are over 280,000 active Toastmasters in 13,500 clubs in 116 countries including many Fortune 500 companies, the US House of Representative, and the US Senate. For almost 90 years, local Toastmasters Clubs have been helping people excel in every aspect of life by becoming more effective communicators and leaders.

"Since joining this organization I have had the distinct pleasure of serving in several leadership capacities but the honor of being the first student president, has truly humbled me," said Justin Pugh. Recently, he earned his Associate of Science in Design and Multimedia and is currently working on his Bachelor of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies with a focus on Marketing.

The next meeting of the "Something to Talk About" Toastmasters is on Monday, July 8 at the Lakeland campus located at 2400 Interstate Drive. The meeting begins at 1:00 p.m. and will be held in Room 209. The "Something to Talk About" Toastmasters club is open to students, staff, faculty, and the general public (18 or over).
