

Golf notebook: 'Starting New' program hit with students

By Mike English

Posted December 20, 2012 at 12:27 a.m.

GOLF EDUCATION

Port St. Lucie's Keiser University is offering a bachelor of science degree in sports management with "concentrations in golf, psychology and sports medicine and fitness technology."

The golf management program teaches students to understand the legal aspects of managing a golf facility as it relates to business law and human-resource management.

Anyone interested in the program should contact the College of Golf campus at 1860 Fountainview Blvd., Port St. Lucie by calling 888-355-4464, or go to www.collegeofgolf.KeiserUniversity.edu.